NEW INFORMATION SUGGESTS FOUL PLAY IN NELSON COUNTY MAN'S DISAPPEARANCE

NELSON COUNTY, Va. – Photographs obtained by Virginia State Police has law enforcement gravely concerned about the safety of a missing Nelson County man. State and local police have been searching for Kevin Wayne Quick, 45, since he was reported missing Saturday (Feb. 1, 2014) by family.

Quick was last seen Friday (Jan. 31, 2014) at 10:15 p.m., when he left his mother's residence in Afton, Va. He was headed to a friend's home at Turtle Creek Apartments in Albemarle County, Va., approximately 20 miles away. Quick never arrived at his friend's residence.

During the course of the investigation, photographs have been obtained featuring two unidentified adult males who investigators believe may have information regarding Quick's disappearance. Quick's silver 1999 Toyota Forerunner also appears in the photographs that place the vehicle in Fork Union, Va., on Friday, Jan. 31, 2014, and in the Manassas area Saturday, Feb. 1, 2014.

State police are still searching for Quick, who is a captain with the Waynesboro Police Department's Police Reserve Unit, and his vehicle. The Toyota Forerunner has Virginia license plates 614-068 with the seal of the Commonwealth in the middle.

Quick is a white male, 6'1 in height and weighs approximately 200 pounds. He has brown hair, hazel eyes and medium build. He wears contacts or glasses and has a scar above his left eye.

Local and state resources spent Saturday night and Sunday morning searching in the areas of the residences in Afton and Albemarle County. Extensive ground and air searches have been conducted.

The Virginia State Police are leading the investigation into Quick's disappearance. The Nelson County Sheriff's Office, Albemarle County Police Department, Charlottesville Police Department and the Waynesboro Police Department are assisting.

Anyone with information is encouraged to call the Virginia State Police at #77 on a cell phone or at (434) 352-7128, or any one of the assisting agencies.
