MEDIA RELEASE

February 2, 2014

The Waynesboro Police Department is assisting with the investigation into a missing person's case involving a 45-year-old Nelson County man who has not been heard from since approximately 10:15 PM Friday night, January 31, 2014. Kevin Wayne Quick left his mother's residence in Afton to head to a friend's home at Turtle Creek Apartments in Albemarle County, approximately twenty miles away, but did not arrive. His family reported him missing to the Nelson County Sheriff's Office 6:00 PM on Saturday, February 1, who entered him into the National Crime Information Center (NCIC). Quick is a Captain in the Waynesboro Police Department's Police Reserve Unit. He has been a member of the unit since 1990.

Quick was last seen driving a silver 1999 Toyota 4 Runner with Virginia license plates/614 068. The license plates have the seal of the Commonwealth in the middle. He is described as:

- White male
- 6'1"
- 200 lbs.
- Brown hair
- Hazel eyes
- Medium build
- Has a scar above his left eye
- Wears contacts or eyeglasses

Local and state resources spent Saturday night and Sunday morning searching the areas of the residences in Afton and Albemarle County. Extensive ground and air searches have been conducted. During the course of the ongoing investigation, law enforcement has received information that he may possibly be in Northern Virginia.

The Virginia State Police are leading the investigation into Quick's disappearance. The Nelson County Sheriff's Office, Albemarle County Police Department, Charlottesville Police Department and the Waynesboro Police Department are assisting.

Anyone with information is encouraged to call the Virginia State Police at #77 on a cell phone or at (434) 352-7128, or any one of the assisting agencies.
